The board of education held its regular meeting last evening, with all members present, and disposed of the following business:

A delegation of citizens from Five points appeared before the board, and James Harrop, on behalf of the delegation, entered a complaint against Prof. E. N. Quinn, as principal of the Pive Points' school, to the effect that the students and principal could not agree, and asked that the board take some action in the matter. The delegation was asked to appear before the board this (Saturday) evening, at it welcock, and they would then have Mr. Quinn present, and the matter would sken up and both sides heard. The financial committee offered the following resolutions, which were manimously adopted by the board; Whereas, The board of education of Ogden City, Utah, has carefully pre-pared a statement and estimate of the ount necessary, and to be raised by amount necessary the property in this a tax levied upon the property in this school district, for the support and maintenance of the schools under its charge for the school year commencing on the first day of July, 1901, and ending on the 30th day of June, 1902; also the amount necessary to pay the inter-est accruing during said year, and not included in any prior estimate, on bonds issued by said board; and also the amount to be used exclusively for the purchase of school sites and the erection of school buildings during said year, which said statement and estimate is as follows:

For the support and maintenance of schools under its charge, during the said year. $44,000.00 For interest on bonds issued by the board, accruing dur-

COURT NOTES. Suit was filed by Mrs. Esther M. Farr against Enoch Farr, Mary E. Farr, William Shaw and Philip Pugsley, to secure a judgement against the defend-ants in the sum of $4,000 and costs of suit. The complaint alleges that the defendants Farr gave to Lorin Farr their certain promissory note for $4,000 and as security on the same they gave to Lorin Farr a mortgage on certain real estate situated in Weber county. That the defendants Shaw and Pugsle claim to have certain interests in said mortgaged property. Wherefore the plaintiff prays that the mortgage be foreclosed, and the property sold at public sale to satisfy the judgment, and that the defendants and each of them be declared to have no claim on the said property Suit was filed by John M. Preshaw against J. W. Burnham, Sr., et al, to quiet the title to certain mining property and claims.

In the matter of the estate of Andrew Larson, the report of the appraisers shows the entire value of his estate to be worth about $9,453.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The spring weather of the past week is causing an athletic spirit to pervade the boys and girls of the High school. Some time ago a class baseball league was formed consisting of the senior, freshmen, sophomore and commercial classes and several games have been played. The games so far have been quite fast and as the season propresses some fast ball is expected.

The board of education has had a basket ball court prepared and teams of both boys and girls will be formed from each class and this popular game will be in full swing.

The Ogden High school alumni assoctation have elected the following of-ficers for the ensuing year: C. Henry Turner, president; Florence Hirst, vice president: Verna Barrows, secretary, and Laura Kimball, treasurer.

GETTING EVEN WITH ASSIGNORS. A little excitement occurred this week at the store known as the Junction Co-op, which, however, has been owned and operated by a company of men residents of Ephraim, for some time past, ever since the Co-op was forced to close its doors by its creditors and now this company has shared the same fate, and the creditors have placed Mr. A. Sundwall, of Fairview, in charge. Now comes a Mr. Henry Thompson into the store, and after greeting the present party in charge, selects two suits of clothes, and wished to know the lowest cash value of the same, upon receiving the desired information he politely asked the privilege of taking the two suits home to determine which of the two he would retain to which proposition the genial manager assented. In a short time Mr. Thomps turned and to the surprise and annoy-ance of Mr. Sundwall, laid on the counter enough of the late company's scrip to pay for the two suits of clothes, remarking, "There is your pay, and that's all you'll get." Then quietly left the

THREE SPECIAL TRIAL RACES.

Between Cup Defense Yachts Constitution and Independence.

SOLUTION OF THE DEADLOCK

The Dates of the Matches Will be July 2, 4 and 6-Contest Will be Off Newport.

New York, April 27.-Three special trial races will be sailed between the cup defense yachts Constitution and Independence, the dates of the matches being July 2, 4 and 6. This announcement has just been made by a representative of the Newport Yacht Racing association, and, is the solution of the deadlock between the New York Yacht club and Thomas Lawson, which threatened to make impossible a race between the two rivals. The races will take place off Newport. A rule of the New York Yacht club forbidding a non-member to sail in a race of that organization excluded Thomas Lawson's yacht from competing in the matches that were to decide the choosing of a challenger to meet Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock II. Mr. Lawson, on the other hand, refused to comply with the requirements of the New York Yacht club and declined to get around the rule by sailing his boat in the New York Yacht club trial races under the name of a member of that club. The matter was settled by the offer of the Newport Yacht Racing association to present a cup for a contest between the rival ves-sels. The races are not under the New York Yacht club, that club having taken no action whatever respect ing the trial matches.

Mr. Duncan, the manager of the Constitution, and Mr. Lawson, the owner of the Independence, have signified their willingness to race for the Newport association's cup.

M'GOVERN-GARDNER BOUTE. It is Expected that Terry Will Have His Hands Full. San Francisco, April 26,-Interest in the coming battle betweeen McGovern

when the signal to begin hostilities is taxed to its utmost capacity outlook the men will play to a record breaking house. When the contest was first arranged many believed that Cardner had but little chance of wresting the laurels from the wonderful Terry. Those who have seen the "Omaha Kid" at work, however, have changed their minds somewhat, and it is believed by many that Cardner, while he may not win given in this city, and from the present that Gardner, while he may not win, will give Terry one of the hardest battles of his life. Gardner trains daily on the roads at Alameda and has already done twice as much preliminary work as he ever did before. He is in the finest possible condition, he says.

The climate here agrees with me wonderfully well. In the east I gen-erally fought at 116 or 118 pounds, but out here I will fight at the limit, 124 pounds. This will make me much stronger than ever before. In all my previous matches I had to give away weight, but if McGovern comes in at 124 I will have an even break with and give him the battle of his

ABOUT DAN CREEDON. His Hair is White, but He is Still

O. K. Dan Creedon's hair is now hite. The former Australian middleweight is gray as a badger. But for all that he seems to have recovered his old time form. He is fighting like a demon and the man-ner in which he disposed of Jim Handher in which he disposed of Jim Handler a little over a week a ago at Memphis makes us stop and wonder. But then Dan is not so old. He is about 34 years of age. Fast living and booze caused his hair to turn gray. Paddy Carroll writes: "Creedon is a surprise. He has cut out the booze and is somewhat of his forces." what of his former self. I do not know of any of the light heavyweights that of any of the light neavyweight, and can beat him unless it's Jack Root, and he would make the Chicago boxer get himse on himself to do that." Root tnocked out Creedon in Kansas City in one round some time ago, but it's quite a different Root he would have to face this time. Dan has a new manager, and he will do well to steer clear of Root at that Root at that.

Fitzsimmons is So Sorry.

Bob Fitzsimmons had his first quarrel with his wife since the pair have been married. But Bob is a very un-fortunate man at present and it can best be imagined by the following in-

Bob Fitzsimmons is greatly dis-tressed over the quarrel he had with his wife in the course of the produc-tion of "The Honest Blacksmith" at Washington, D. C., and a reconcilia-tion between the Cornishman and his spouse is hourly expected. In his dressing-room Bob discussed the affair with overflowing heart.
"Hit made my bloody 'eart ache" ha

"Hit made my bloody 'eart ache," he said as a tear sparkled in his Cornishblue eye, "Mrs. Fitz came to me this morning and 'Bob,' says she, 'Hi want you to do something for me.' Well, Hi couldn't say a word. She says, 'Bob, I want you to fix my eye; you know 'ow to do it." I couldn't speak to her, but to do it." I couldn't speak to her, but Hi followed 'er into the next room and looked hat 'er eye. Hit was black underneath. Hit made me feel so bad. My 'eart came right up 'ere," he said, indicating the place in his throat with a hand like a ham. "Hi didn't say a word, but went out of the room and slammed the door behind me. The first thing Hi knew Hi was tracer the averthing Hi knew Hi was up on the ave-nue and the tears weer so thick in my bloody eyes Hi couldn't see where Hi

But this morning Hi slammed the door just like that," and he threw the door of the dressing-room to, nearly taking it off its hinges and almost crushing his manager, who was just coming in.
"Hit like to broke my bloody 'eart," he repeated mournfully as he left for the next act. "when she asked me to do somethin' for 'er and Hi didn't do hit."
